Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

PRESIDER:

As disciples gathered around Jesus, let us offer to the Lord our intercessions for all God's children.

LECTOR:

1. For those called to shepherd the Lord's flock: may they attend with compassion to the needs of all. We pray to the Lord.
2. For the birth of a new humanity, reconciled to God and each other: May Christ be our peace, putting to death the hostility that divides us. We pray to the Lord.
3. For those whom society has abandoned: May Christians extend to them the compassion of Christ the Shepherd. We pray to the Lord.
4. For those who have been brought near to God and to each other by the blood of Christ: May we proclaim to all the peace God has bestowed on us. We pray to the Lord.
5. For those the Good Shepherd has gathered to himself: May they live forever in the Lord's fold. We pray to the Lord.
